CORRECTION

Brittany Redenbaugh was inadvertently not mentioned as a member of the Dandies for 2005. This brings the number of CST members on the Dandies to four. Sorry for the oversight Brittany. Congratulations!

Nominations for CST board 2005

The following nomination were accepted at the annual banquet:

President: Jay Ostby
Vice President: Barb Pitt
Secretary: Stacey Ostby
Treasurer:
Horse Show: Heidi Kindsvater
Gymkhana: Sherry Lavalais, Tracy Merrick
Concessions: Stephanie Heitsch
Grounds: Lester Holbrook
Advisor: Victoria Hall
3-D Jody Osban, Stephanie Hochhalter

Final nominations and elections will be held at the November meeting. All nominees must be present or provide written consent to serve before the election. If unable to serve, please notify a current board member prior to the November meeting. Any members interested in serving on the board should attend the November meeting, or notify a current board member with their consent.

AWARDS BANQUET

With an attendance over 130, the 2004 annual awards banquet was a great success. The new clubhouse was filled, and a great time was had by all! The biggest accomplishment of the year was the acquisition of the Sheriff's Posse property. We owe a great debt to everyone who was involved with this transfer. The horse shows, gymkhanas and 3-D barrels were all great successes this season. The turn out at the this banquet is a fitting tribute to the efforts of those whose hard work and dedication made these events run smoothly.

As is the Saddle Tramps tradition, the 2004 royalty gave their farewell speeches and crowned the 2005 royalty. Both Maggie and Shelby spoke of what their roles as royalty meant to them. Thank you, ladies, for your hard work and dedication this past year. We hope that Erin and Sammy will live up to your example of what being CST royalty means. Erin and Sammy spent their first official evening as royalty selling raffle tickets to raise money for the upcoming year. A special thanks goes out to Mike Gray, Barb & Gary Pitt, The Habermans and The Kindsvaters for their donations to the raffle.

Each year honors are given to the Most Improved Rider for the season, along with the youth that displayed extraordinary dedication to the Club and its membership through leadership, participation and sportsmanship (The Sheila Vossler Award) and the individual or family that has displayed extraordinary dedication to the Club and its membership through leadership, participation and sportsmanship (The John Easterwood Award). This years recipients were:

Most Improved Rider: Daniel Kindsvater
Sheila Vossler: Charles Jolley
John Easterwood: Jay Ostby

Congratulations, and thanks for everything you have done for the club!

Farewell from 2004 Royalty

CST royalty had a very exciting year in 2004. We would like to thank the people that helped to make our year a success. These include Sherry Lavalais, for providing the concessions at all the horse shows and gymkhanas; Barb Pitt, for her hard work as royalty advisor; our parents and families for their dedication; and all the members of CST for their support.

CST royalty involves a lot of time and dedication, on the part of the royalty as well as the support team. The time, effort and diligence of these people is appreciated. Their guidance helped us to be successful. With them, the 2004 CST royalty year was a fun and exciting learning experience. We were proud to be the official representatives for CST 2004!

Letter from Shelby Kindsvater, Princess 2004

I have been the Princess for Cheyenne Saddle Tramps for the past year. It has been a wonderful experience for me. I have learned a lot and gotten to work with many neat people. I have also met lots of interesting people. My horse Amber and I worked hard together at all of the events and on the drill team.

Maggie and I helped in concessions this year. We would like to give a special gratitude to Sherry for all of her hard work in making it successful. All of the concessions proceeds helped us this year. Maggie and I also decided to give $200.00 to the club for the purchase of a new Barbeque. We would like to thank the club for all it has done for us.

I would also like to thank my family for their support. My Mom took me to all of my events and royalty duties, my brother Daniel for riding with me. Johnny, David and my Dad came and helped me out also.

This past year was successful thanks to our drill coach and royalty advisor Barb. She worked hard for us this year and it took a lot of her time and energy. We appreciate all she did.

I wish next years royalty good luck and I hope they have a good time next year. Thank you.

BENEFIT FOR TONY HALL
Proceeds from the fall 3-D barrels series were donated to Tony Hall to help offset expenses from his recent accident. Through your generous donations and participation in the series, we were able to donate almost $500. We are happy to report that Tony returned home on October 16, and is doing well.

Christmas Parade

Cheyenne's 2004 Christmas Parade will be held November 27 at 5:00 p.m. All participants need to be lined up at 3:00 p.m. Our location is approximately 18th and O'Neil Ave. The theme is Christmas Dreams. Please dress WARMLY, heavy coat, long pants and riding boots. Cowboy hat, Santa hat, a helmet or warm hat are required. Feel free to adorn your horse with Christmas decorations, as you see fit. Contact Heidi with any questions about proper dress for you or your horse. Please come ride in the parade, either on horseback or on the float. We'd like our turnout to rival the Frontier Days Parades.

For those of you that feel you or your horse may not be up to riding a parade in the cold & dark, we will also have a float. (We will decorate the float at the parade site. Contact Gary or Barb Pitt with questions about the float, 547-3577.) Kids or adults (or adults who act like kids) are all encouraged to ride on the float! Blankets are welcome on the float. Remember to bring one or two along. Contact Heidi if you have any questions. On parade day you can contact Heidi on her cell phone, 214-2855 or Barb on her cell phone, 421-2756.
