

Cheyenne Saddle Tramp
2019 Cheyenne Frontier Days Parade Information
Parade Chair: Anita LaFond

Frontier Days Parades (July 20nd, 23rd, 25th and 27th –Entry #94

* Attire for rider for all CFD parades will be: Blue jeans, white long-sleeved button-down shirt, white toned straw cowboy hat or helmet and boots with a heel approved for riding. Neck scarves will be provided to you at the parade line-up each day by the parade chair or you can buy a red bandana and pink bandana of your own. You MUST turn in the scarves to the parade chair after each parade.

- Royalty may wear their designated attire.
- Drill Team may wear their designated attire.
- Red saddle pads
- Can wear Pink shirt & saddle pad on Thursday the 25th for 'Tough Enough to Wear Pink Day'

Parade Line-up is on Central Ave in front of the State Museum.

- Be in the saddle and ready to ride no later than 8:30 AM.

Parades

1. All participants in parades for Cheyenne Frontier Days or at similar functions must be current members of Cheyenne Saddle Tramps and wear the official Cheyenne Saddle Tramps Riding Club outfit. Those not conforming may be excluded from parades/ at the discretion of the Parade Chairperson. Special groups within Saddle Tramps, such as Royalty and Drill Team, may be authorized to wear different uniforms.
2. All horses used in parades must be acceptably groomed and brushed. Those not conforming may be excluded at the discretion of the Parade Chairperson.
3. All horses that are known to kick will wear a red ribbon in their tail. The Rider will provide the ribbon.
4. If an individual is asked and refuses to leave a parade route because of an unsafe horse, then the individual will be banned from all further Cheyenne Saddle Tramps functions for the remainder of the year. The outriders and the Parade Chairperson make this decision.
5. All general rules of Cheyenne Saddle Tramps will be followed when at the parade, grand entry or drill site.
6. All riders must participate in a parade clinic to be able to ride in the parade
7. NO double riding or bareback riding will be tolerated.
8. Outriders have the discretion to "pony" a horse or remove a horse if the situation warrants it.
9. No dogs allowed.
10. Foals will be haltered and lead or ponied.
11. All members will be given rules and guidelines for parade/grand entry participation at the parade clinic, and a signature will be required acknowledging receipt of these rules and guidelines.
12. All Cheyenne Saddle Tramps Members riding in parades/grand entries are required to attend Parade Clinic and they must be on the horse they intend to ride in parades. Records will be kept on horse/rider combinations. In extenuating circumstances, having a special clinic may be made. The Parade Chairperson will handle this.
13. No smoking while on the parade route.
14. All riders must observe basic safety while around and on the horses. This includes, but is not limited to, having both feet in the stirrups, remaining seated in the saddle, and adequate control of horse at all times.
15. Parade chair has the discretion to excuse any rider that is acting inappropriately.